"Gheorghe Asachi" Technical University of Iasi, Romania
Romanian Mathematical Society

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to inform you that the Mathematical Society of South Eastern Europe (MASSEE) announces the 18th Mathematical Olympiad for the first and the second year university students - SEEMOUS 2024. The competition will be hosted by the "Gheorghe Asachi" Technical University of Iasi, in the period April 9 - 14, 2024. The aim of the competition is to encourage mathematically gifted university students towards further mathematical accomplishments and to create new, friendly and beneficial relationships.

We cordially invite your teams to participate at SEEMOUS 2024. A team may consist of up to 6 students and 2 professors (a team leader and a deputy team leader). Eligible are students who are not beyond the second university year of undergraduate studies by the end of the 2023/24 academic year or have not completed more than 120 ECTS credits. Students can also form a national team to represent a country. The SEEMOUS regulations, previous competitions, problems and results can be found at <http://www.massee-org.eu/index.php/mathematical/seemous> and

<https://cdn.b3web.xyz/web/cms/optimizedSEEMOUS2021regulations.pdf1620821168.pdf>

Each team can send their problem proposals until March 17, 2024.

All SEEMOUS participants will cover their own travel, accommodation and food. Participation fees covering accommodation and food will be announced soon.

If you have any questions about the competition, please contact us (seemous2024@gmail.com)
The local website will be available soon at <http://math.etti.tuiasi.ro/seemous2024/>

We hope that your university and your country will participate in this Mathematical University Olympiad. We are looking forward to welcome you in Iasi!

Marcel Roman

Chair of the Organizing Committee of SEEMOUS 2024
